What Is A Company Worth?

Determining the value of a business is a vital aspect associated with many business transactions, including:

- Estate and Gift Strategies
- Mergers and Acquisitions
- Succession Planning
- Divorce Settlement
- Buy/Sell Agreements
- Strategic Planning
- SBA Lending
- Business Financing
- Fairness Opinions
- Goodwill Impairment
- Insurance Claims

Why Choose MichaelSilver?

The Valuation Services Group at MichaelSilver is among the best in the business. Our process begins by working with the client to fully understand their business and ends with the client fully understanding the value of their business.

Our reports are simple enough to be understood, but detailed enough to support the conclusion of value. Our goal is to clearly communicate the value to judges, juries, IRS agents, other business owners, and family members. Every user of our valuation report must be able to follow the logic of what drives the value. Our expertise and comprehensive approach ensure that clients receive a well-reasoned, well-presented valuation report. Should our valuation be questioned by taxing authorities or through litigation, we are happy to provide the expertise needed to support the valuation.

We Offer Express Valuations

The MichaelSilver Express Valuation is a quick, streamlined report, appropriate for:

- Business Offer/Acceptance Pricing
- Benchmarking
- Pre-marital Planning
- Flexible and Resilient Buy/Sell Agreements

We Bring Value to Business Valuation

Our fully accredited and trusted team draws upon their vast business valuation knowledge and expertise. We have over 70 years of valuation experience in a wide variety of industries, backed by a thorough understanding of tax and audit implications. We recognize that our clients are experts in their businesses. We utilize their insight to help us determine what drives the value of their business.
